

Teachers Now Have Access to French Resources Using TeachAde.com

TeachAde, the innovative online community and free resource center for teachers, is providing educators' resources in French for their ELL & ESL students and parents. Members are encouraged to share their resources with staff and create groups so that a student's transition in school may be easier and more successful.

Aspen, CO (PRWEB) October 01, 2013 -- TeachAde.com, an award-winning online community and resource center for teachers, is excited to announce that membership is no longer only for those speaking English. TeachAde is also available in French so that teachers and parents may help students learn, be more successful, improve self-esteem, and for teachers, help create a positive classroom environment.

This attention to serving the needs of educators has made TeachAde one of the leading online resources recognized by educators and industry leaders for its standard of excellence and achievement. The French option is located on the home page and is easily accessible throughout the TeachAde website as well as on their Facebook page.

"To accompany these additional language options, the ability to assign languages and countries to resources and groups has also been added, allowing teachers to target exactly the audience they want," said Michael Pearce, CEO of TeachAde.com.

About TeachAde

TeachAde has established itself as a leader online for educators to locate and disseminate informational resources that have been peer-reviewed and approved. As a website that has pioneered the idea of providing online resources especially for educators, TeachAde helps educators break out of stagnant information ruts and discover a world of trusted materials and strategies that enrich their classrooms and their careers.

TeachAde currently offers more than 60,000 free resources created, tested and approved by teachers that support quality classroom experiences nationwide and now worldwide. Through its monthly eBulletin, this online support and resource destination for educators also provides easy access to updates in education, current events and highlights of the most current resources directly to members. TeachAde membership is available free of charge to educators, parents and members of the community who work with or support education.

TeachAde also has created strategic partnerships with organizations such as NEA Member Benefits, Adopt-A-Classroom, The Goldie Hawn MindUp Foundation, ThinkStretch, Agile-Ed and Disney to further support educators. Entrepreneur and philanthropist Robert Potamkin, Chairman of Potamkin Companies, provides investor funding for TeachAde.com. Visit TeachAde's newly redesigned website and find new resources, groups and members.
